

Notice to customers and suppliers

MTU Detroit Diesel Australia and MTU Detroit Diesel New Zealand rebranded as Penske Power Systems

1 April 2015 marked the official rebrand of MTU Detroit Diesel Australia and MTU Detroit Diesel New Zealand to Penske Power Systems.

This change follows the October 2014 acquisition of our company by the Penske organisation.

Penske Power Systems will be a vital player in the suite of businesses owned by Penske Automotive Group, an international force within the transportation service industry.

We look forward to working with you under the Penske Power Systems brand, continuing our strong customer focus with you in line with our Professional Power People vision.

Accounts Receivable and Accounts Payable departments are contactable through their existing phone numbers, or on 02 9794 2600.

Please note that while our bank details and ABN remain unchanged, our bank account name has been changed to Penske Power Systems.
